

Friday Night Live at GardenScape

Written by Administrator

Monday, 18 January 2010 22:57 - Last Updated Monday, 31 January 2011 03:08

It is a fun, casual evening with great live rock n roll—by Reporter—amid warm, sweet smelling, visually stunning gardens! As they twist and shout, visitors are transported to a wild, lavish springtime party in the backyard - an inexpensive vacation from the dreary Rochester winter without the hassle of baggage, immigration and security pat downs! Admire the gardens in bloom as only Rochester's premier landscapers can design them! One night only - dance the night away at Rochester's most exclusive—spring party getaway, Friday Night Live at GardenScape!

Held after show hours on Friday, Friday Night Live at GardenScape provides guests a chance to enjoy music, dancing,—and free food amid the gardens. Friday Night Live at GardenScape— tickets are purchased separately but allow guests to arrive early to view exhibits and visit vendors during show hours, before the—party in the gardens—begins at 8:30pm.

—

A cash bar also will be available. Live music will be provided by Reporter, www.thebandreporter.com .—Friday Night Live at GardenScape tickets are available for $15 per person and may be purchased at the box office on show days, at Wegman's That The Ticket— for through our online box office. Dance! Rock! Fun! Period.